

AN OFFER FOR UNCLE WARREN BUFFETT — ONLY 1 USD

Ferdinando Frega - Gillette Italy 1985-2003 - REGGIO CALABRIA, ITALY - gillettenarrative.com

Date: September 9, 2026 - Reggio Calabria, Italy

Ferdinando Frega, 61 - Reggio Calabria - Son of a Gillette Gentleman 1962-1996

Dear Mr. Buffett, Good morning.

My name is Ferdinando Frega, Italian, 61 years old, and a manager in your Gillette Italy subsidiary between 1985 and 2003. I am writing to you from Reggio Calabria, Italy, on September 9, 2026.

When you decided to leave your position within Gillette in February 2003, through the disposal of the stake you held, it did not take me long to understand that you had decided to change the helm of a boat that was not bringing in the catch you had expected.

And so, a few days later, I submitted a request within Gillette Italy expressing my desire to leave as well. However, management struggled to replace me, and it was only on November 30, 2003, that I was finally able to depart.

My father was a Gillette Gentleman, from 1962 to 1996, a salesman in Southern Italy, in that land called Calabria. Reggio Calabria was our territory.

Whenever Ronald Perelman, the man behind REVLON, attempted a takeover or launched a tender offer for Gillette, he always found himself trapped by your determination. When you spoke out for the first time, everyone listened carefully. It could hardly have been otherwise for the Oracle of Omaha.

You uttered a sentence that resonated like a mantra for all of us: as long as Warren Buffett remains in The Gillette Company, no one will be able to buy it, because I do not sell it.

It was the assurance behind all assurances, because it came from you, the man who, if he says it is raining outside, makes it pointless to carry a colander to collect the water. And everyone understood.

I was among the first to remember your words. It could not have been otherwise. They were your code of conduct.

I sold your brands, razors, and batteries, and today I wish to make you an offer regarding batteries, as a personal debt owed by a nephew to his uncle.

We are both attentive to levels of thought and action. That is only natural, even though there are thirty-three years between us. What strongly unites us is our shared existential reference to the human code of conduct: yours expressed through finance, which JP Morgan has often struggled to digest, while mine, expressed through literature, has found favor on the web.

In December 2025, the first website, naples-post.com, was born. Autonomous and independent, it served as a literary and editorial training ground for an author with no experience but an ardent desire to learn.

Then, on June 9, 2026, that site transformed into gillettenarrative.com, a free library offering the 58-year Gillette genealogy of the Frega family - 58 years from Reggio Calabria. It also tells the ethical code of other companies, hosting additional sagas including P&G;, BIC, Wilkinson Sword, Schick, L'Oréal-Garnier, and Wall Street, highlighting how a code of conduct can change and shape people through real, lived experience, without artificial storytelling.

Then the Gillette Vatican saga could not be missing, nor a letter to His Holiness Prevost, complete with proof of delivery. An American man bearing a French surname, just like Grandfather King Camp Gillette. From there, I narratively created the figure of Jesus of Nazareth as the first colleague of shaving, the man who called the first sharpened stone 'Gillette.' Ironically, he was the only one who knew it.

But all this and much more can be found on the website, where you may spend a few hours smiling. It is only seventeen PDFs in thirty-three languages.

As of today, September 9, 2026, the gillettenarrative.com corpus contains 17,000 links, thirty-three languages, eBooks, PDFs, HTML pages, and more than 9,000 indexed references on the web. It occupies semantic territory within leading multinational search queries on Bing, Google, Yandex, and Yahoo Japan. Knowing your philosophy, I am attaching 17 Bing screenshots from today so that you do not waste your time.

The seven foundational works of the website are protected and registered with the U.S. Copyright Office. A copy of the registration is enclosed as Exhibit B.

I built it to honor managers all over the world and, quite unexpectedly, the title Gillette Depression is finding many readers.

Berkshire acquired Duracell from P&G; in 2016. I have profound respect for what you have accomplished.

From October 1, 2026, through January 31, 2027, I make my website available to you for the placement of ten Duracell banners at a cost of USD 1, as a single transaction for the entire period and with no further present or future claims of any kind.

The banknote will be delivered by a person designated by you, and I kindly ask that it be signed by you on both the front and back. I hope you will not mind.

Should you wish to accept my proposal, all that will be required is the agreement, which may also be prepared by your legal office, and which I will sign by acceptance as the founder and owner of the website.

Should you wonder, from the vantage point of your ninety-four years, who I am, the answer can be found in a single sentence: simply someone whom no one expects to exist and yet is real. From Reggio Calabria.

Thank you for your time.

With respect,

Ferdinando Frega

P.S. Humanity recognizes you for consistently doing things against the prevailing trend, and that is what brought you to where you are today. Who better than you could cognitively understand my letter?

Yours,

BRAND NARRATIVE GILLETTE

Gillette's brand narrative focuses not just on products, but on shaping the identity, behavior, and self-expression of the men who use them.

Conceptual Narrative

The 2026 publication Brand Narrative Gillette by Ferdinando Frega presents Gillette not as a company, but as a disciplinary and behavioral force that molds men's instincts, timing, and personal identity . The book emphasizes that the narrative is about the men forged by Gillette, exploring how corporate culture, product design, and professional discipline leave lasting effects on individuals long after their tenure with the company. It frames the brand as a method and lived experience, rather than a mere commercial entity, highlighting the human consequences of engagement with the brand .

The Gillette company and brand originate from the late 19th century when salesman and inventor King Camp Gillette came up with the idea of a safety razor that used disposable blades. Safety razors at the time were essentially short pieces of a straight razor clamped to a holder. The blade had to be stropped before each shave and after a time needed to be honed by a cutler. Wilkinson Sword: storia e evoluzione

Wilkinson Sword è un'azienda fondata a Londra nel 1772 da Henry Nock, originariamente specializzata in armi da fuoco, ma che nel XIX secolo si è affermata come produttrice di spade, baionette e prodotti per la cura della persona  Wikipedia . Nel 1891 è diventata la Wilkinson Sword Company. Nel 1992 ha acquistato Schick, e nel 2000 è stata venduta a Pfizer. Nel 2003, Energizer Holdings l'ha acquisita, ma ha subito difficoltà a integrarla nel proprio modello di business, che si basava sulla distribuzione e sulla visibilità, mentre il settore dei rasoi richiede relazioni di lungo termine con i

The Wall Street Saga — Origins, Themes, and Cultural Impact

"The Wall Street Saga" is a nonfiction work by Ferdinando Frega that explores the hidden forces shaping the modern financial world, focusing on elements that markets measure but do not capture — such as trust, character, institutional memory, and identity  gillettenarrative.com .

Author's Perspective and Approach

Frega's background — 18 years at Gillette and over two decades leading global businesses — gives him a unique vantage point. He worked inside corporate environments without being bound to the language of formal financial reporting. His aim is not to challenge finance itself, but to examine the "territory beside finance" — the human and cultural dimensions that influence decisions, loyalty, and long-term success  gillettenarrative.com .

OPA BIC — The Story and Its Meaning

OPA BIC is a fictional narrative by Ferdinando Frega, part of the Human Behavior as Story series, blending satire, intrigue, and personal reflection. It is not an official banking or corporate term, but rather a creative title inspired by the real-life BIC company and the concept of an "OPA" (offensive purchase offer) in corporate takeovers.

Plot Overview

The story follows a character — often interpreted as a stand-in for the author — who receives a mysterious phone call from the Sheraton Hotel in Reggio Calabria. The call is about a debt left by a French colleague, Chanel, who had been working with the narrator. The debt is absurdly small — one U.S. dollar — and the narrator is asked to pay it before opening a letter  .

The letter contains a personal note from Chanel, adding a layer of emotional and romantic subtext. The narrator’s life is disrupted by this odd request, leading to a series of events that culminate in a
