

THE PART THEY NEVER TRANSCRIBED

Upon This Rock, and What Came After

When he met Peter he said: upon this rock you will build my church.
That much is reported in the Bible.
The rest of the conversation was never transcribed.
It stayed on a confidential level.

All those who wish to follow me are welcome.
No exclusions. No classism.
But our collaborators — the ones we had to hire from the employment office to keep the politicians happy, and who do not want to shave —
for those I ask you to create ad hoc religious orders.
Orders that are not visible.
So they do not damage our image, and we do not lose depth and credibility on the word.

Now everyone is ready to jump out of their seat and say: this madman is even touching the highest spheres of Christian spirituality.
Who does he think he is.
He is a madman, a mythomaniac.
But who the hell is he?

The answer is simple and it seems banal.
Just someone you do not expect.

Good reading.
